

Superintendent Announces

“Koffee Klatch”

A casual social gathering for coffee and conversation

Each month the Lenape Valley Regional High School Superintendent will host a meeting to allow parents and community members the opportunity to ask questions and discuss concerns about the school as part of an informal monthly coffee session. The ultimate goal is to increase parent and family involvement through effective communication while serving as an advocate for all families.

Below is the meeting schedule and who, along with Mr. DiRupo, will be in attendance. The first 15-20 people who respond will be invited to the meeting which will take place in the Lecture Hall at 6:30 p.m. Please call Mrs. Luanne Canfield, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent, at 973-347-7600, ext. 5101 to confirm your attendance.
