Thomas E. Claeys, Jr., Principal

December 1, 2020

Dear Students and Families,

Our first semester will end as scheduled with mid-term examinations for full-year classes and final examinations for semester classes. This year, these examinations will be taken from home, online. Our schedule for the exam week is below.

There are two testing sessions each day with half an hour break between them.

	Session 1 8:00 to 10:00	Session 2 10:30 to 12:30
Monday, January 11	English	World Languages
Tuesday, January 12,	Social Studies	Art
Wednesday, January 13	Science	Music
Thursday, January 14	Math	Business Ed
Friday, January 15	Make-Up	Make-Up

Students who have two examinations in a subject area (for example, someone who has two science classes) will take one test on the scheduled day and the second in the make-up sessions or at a time that is mutually convenient for the teacher and the student. On test day, students who are absent for their session will receive a zero as their examination grade, and must complete the examination in a make-up session.

Students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement and work-ethic may become exempt from a final examination for a semester course. In order to be exempt, one needs to have a combined average of 90 for both marking periods. Students do not have to be online for any session in which they are exempt from a final examination for a semester course.

There are no re-takes of any final or mid-term examinations.

Best of luck on your examinations,

Lenape Valley Regional High School
